Your host, Salacious Larry, invites you to join him on a literary excursion into the art
of storytelling...

A satirical take on the misery memoir, and a romantic comedy with a difference, Larry's Lessons is a fictional autobiography that tells the story of Larry Tonks, a precocious mathematician, who loses his virginity at the age of 50, and earns a fortune by ghostwriting for the celebs.

“Beginning with a loss of faith, and ending with a beginning.
Ingenious and unique... Recommended reading” Billy Clark
